

OBSERVANCE AND MEMORIAL

PHOTOGRAPHS FROM S-21, CAMBODIA

UNTIL MARCH 10, 2013

Observance and Memorial: Photographs from S-21, Cambodia aims to bring awareness about the mass atrocities that occurred under the rule of the Khmer Rouge in Cambodia between 1975 and 1979. To deepen our understanding of the complex issues introduced in the exhibition, the Institute for Contemporary Culture at the ROM will host a symposium on November 8 and 10, 2012.

Opening Keynote for Observance and Memorial Symposium

Robert Petit

November 8, 2012 – 7 pm

In his former role as International Co-Prosecutor for the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia which sought rulings against leaders of the Khmer Rouge, Robert Petit was deeply embedded in the transitional justice movement. He will share stories of his work in Cambodia, and his commitment to generating an accurate list of all victims of the S-21 prison, which has been used as key evidence in the trials.

Following Mr. Petit's presentation, he will be joined by Rachel Pulfer, Executive Director of Journalists for Human Rights, for an on-stage conversation and an audience Q&A session.

Tickets are $15 for the general public, and $12 for ROM members.

Available at www.rom.on.ca/cambodia

Day of Discussion and Dialogue

November 10th, 2012 9:30 am–6:00 pm

Both local and international experts will delve deeper into the themes introduced in the exhibition. FREE to all.

Please enter through the President's Choice Group Entrance, located at the south end of the Museum.

Questions? Email icc@rom.on.ca or call 416-586-5535

9:30 am Welcome + Overview Modern Cambodian History

30 mins

10:15 am Journalism and the Pursuit of Justice

60 mins

11:30 am "The Interrogators Had Their Job and I had Mine":

75 mins

Taking a Closer Look at S-21 Prison Photographer, Nhem En

*Includes screening of Academy Award Nominated film The Conscience of Nhem En.*

12:45 pm Lunch Break and Optional Exhibition Viewing

60 mins

1:45 pm Exhibiting Difficult History: How and Why We Display
Humanity's Darkest Moments

60 mins

3:00 pm Transitional Justice: The Khmer Rouge Tribunal and the Power of Hybrid International-Domestic Criminal Tribunals

75 mins

4:30 pm Preserving the Survivor's Voice: Sharing, Protecting and Documenting

90 mins

The ICC would like to thank our programming partners:

Artists for Children and Youth
The Asian Institute, Munk School of Global Affairs, University of Toronto
East Gallery
Facing History and Ourselves
Friends of ICC
Human Rights Watch Canada
Journalists for Human Rights
ROM Education + ROM Family Programs
Tribal Cracking Wind

The ICC would like to thank the following individuals for their support of Observance and Memorial: Photographs from S-21, Cambodia

Ron and Gillian Graham
Susan Crocker and John Hunkin
The Honourable Bill and Cathy Graham
Deanna Horton
Sarah and Tom Milroy
Richard and Donna Ivey

FOR TICKETS AND INFO VISIT WWW.ROM.ON.CA/CAMBODIA

ICC Institute for Contemporary
Culture

